WSOP Europe Main Event Champ Omar Eljach Wins Second Bracelet in Rozvadov
November 01, 2024 Dan O'Hair Live Reporter

Omar Eljach has 3 overcome a 719-entry field and defeated Diana Volcovschi heads-up in Event #2: €550 Pot Limit Omaha 8-Max at the 2024 3 World Series of Poker Europe. Eljach earns his second WSOP bracelet, along with the €65,900 first-place prize here at King's 3 Resort in Rozvadov.

The victory comes fresh off of a breakout year in 2024, in which Eljach won the WSOPE Main 3 Event — padding an already impressive poker resume that includes over €2,000,000 in live-tournament earnings.

Eljach entered the final table with 3 more than twice that of his next closest opponent and put on a clinic in big-stack play by continually applying 3 pressure to his opponents in the face of significant pay jumps. En route to his victory, Eljach claimed six final-table 3 eliminations and at no point gave up the chip lead.

Winner's Reaction

"I'm very happy to get my second [bracelet]. I was 3 actually more excited for the bracelet than the laddering of the money, which has not been the case before," Eljach 3 said.

Eljach remained confident throughout the final table and explained how he was able to apply a lot of pressure to 3 the medium stacks using his big stack.

"I knew I could apply a lot of pressure because there were a lot 3 of short stacks. The stacks that were half my size couldn't really move as long as the short stacks were 3 there. It was a good spot for me to be able to steamroll the table."

Eljach said he will be gunning 3 for another bracelet during this year's series, particularly in the upcoming PLO events.

"It's my favorite game. I definitely consider myself 3 more of a PLO player."

Final Table Action

Day 3 began with an unofficial final table of nine looking to claim WSOPE glory. The action started 3 relatively slow, with the first elimination of the day occurring after Michal Mrakes found himself short and losing the rest 3 of his chips to Eljach's straight after getting all-in preflop.

Anson Tsang came into the final day second in chips but 3 was unable to build any momentum and lost the majority of his stack after getting his aces cracked by Eljach, 3 who claimed the rest of Tsang's chips a few hands later.

After an extended period of action that saw Roland Israelashvili 3 survive facing elimination six times, Patrik Jaros, Martino Cito, and Ihar Pliashko all fell in seventh, sixth, and fifth place 3 respectively in rapid succession with Eljach claiming two more eliminations.

Michael Rodrigues remained relatively quiet throughout the table, but escalating blinds 3 forced him to take a stand in a blind versus blind confrontation against Eljach that unsurprisingly went Eljach's way.

Israelashvili, who 3 was down to just 15,000 chips at one point, finally saw his good fortune come to an end after running 3 into the nut flush of Volcovschi.

Volcovschi entered the final table as the short stack but managed to navigate all the 3 way to heads-up play, which ended nearly as soon as it began. On the second hand of heads-up, Volcovschi found 3 herself committing the rest of her chips against Eljach in a cooler wherein both players flopped a flush. With that, 3 Eljach secured his victory in a convincing manner.
