Also known as 7 Card Stud Hi/Lo and Stud 8, Stud Eight or Better is essentially a mix of Stud and Razz.

Stud Hi-Lo is a split pot game. The best high hand wins half of the pot, and the best low hand wins the other half of the pot. The low hand must "qualify" with at least five cards below 8 in order to win half of the pot. This game uses the A-to-5 lowball rankings for low hands, in which straights and flushes do not count against your hand.

It is possible for a player to win both the high and low portions of the pot -- known as "scooping". If there is no qualifying low hand (five cards below 8), the best high hand scoops the whole pot.

(Note: This guide covers the rules of Stud Hi-Lo.

Stud Hi-Lo / Eight or Better

Rules

Stud 8 is almost always played as a fixed limit betting game. The small bet size is used during the first two rounds of betting (third and fourth street), and the big bet size is used on fifth street and beyond.

The small bet size is used during the first two rounds of betting (third and fourth street), and the big bet size is used on fifth street and beyond. Each player antes a fraction of the small bet before the cards are dealt. In a R$2/$4 limit game, for example, the antes are usually R$0.30.

two face-down

"hole cards" and one face-up "door card". The player with the lowest Door Card must start the betting with the Bring-In, which is usually about half the size of the small bet. Alternatively, the player may also complete the size of the small bet.

players have the same low card, the card with the lowest suit will Bring-In (the order from highest to lowest is spades-hearts-diamonds-clubs).

, who may call the current bet, raise, or fold. The betting proceeds counterclockwise. Four more cards are dealt to each player with rounds of betting in between: Fourth Street: Each player is dealt another card face up. There is then a round of betting, and the player with the highest value exposed hand is first to act, so a player with Q-4 exposed would act before a player with 5-3 exposed.

The player may bet the small bet size or check unless any player is showing a pair, in which case they, or any other player, may raise the stakes by using the big bet size instead. Fifth Street: Each player is dealt another card face up. As with the previous street, there is a round of betting and the player with the highest exposed hand acts first. This time, the player may bet the bigger limit bet or check. Sixth Street: Once again, each player is dealt another card face up, and the player with the highest exposed hand must act first, either checking or betting the big bet size. Seventh Street (the 'river'): On Seventh Street, each player is dealt one final card face down for a total of three face-down cards and four exposed cards. The player with the highest exposed hand is first to act in the final round of betting, and they must bet the big bet size or check.

Showdown and Hand Rankings

The pot is split between the best low hand (following the A-to-5 lowball hand rankings) and the best high hand. If there is no qualifying low hand, the best high hand wins the whole pot.

Estados Unidos enfrenta a Brasil en la final olímpica de fútbol femenino

Rose Lavelle está en la banca

Rose Lavelle, una de 2 las mejores armadoras que el equipo de Estados Unidos haya tenido, está en la banca. Korbin Albert y Sam Coffey 2 han compartido tiempo en el rol de número 6. Hoy, ambos comienzan el partido.

¿Es esto una falta de confianza por 2 parte de Emma Hayes? ¿O Hayes cree que Lavelle, cuyo historial de lesiones se asemeja a una tragedia shakesperiana, no 2 está en condiciones de jugar 120 minutos y prefiere ingresarla en el minuto 60?

Todo lo demás se espera.

Once inicial

Arquera: Alyssa 2 Naeher (Chicago)

Defensa (de izquierda a derecha): Crystal Dunn (Gotham FC), Tierna Davidson (Gotham FC), Naomi Girma (San Diego), Emily Fox 2 (Arsenal/ING)

Mediocampo (roles por definir): Korbin Albert (PSG/FRA), Sam Coffey (Portland), capitana Lindsey Horan (Lyon/FRA)

Delantera: Sophia Smith (Portland), Mallory Swanson (Chicago), 2 Trinity Rodman (Washington)

Un recordatorio del pasado

En 2008, en la final femenina de fútbol olímpico, 2 me senté en la tribuna de prensa junto a un colega y declaré que Estados Unidos no tenía posibilidades de 2 ganar.

¿Cómo podrían? Se enfrentaban a un equipo brasileño que los había superado en el Mundial de 2007. Abby Wambach se 2 había roto la pierna y se había perdido los Juegos Olímpicos. Brasil finalmente iba a conseguir su primer campeonato mundial 2 o olímpico.

Pero la defensa resistió, Carli Lloyd anotó un disparo especulativo en tiempo extra y Estados Unidos se quedó con 2 el oro una vez más.

Brasil, el equipo a vencer

Esta vez, Estados Unidos debería ser el favorito. Brasil no pasó de 2 la fase de grupos en el Mundial del año pasado después de un empate 0-0 con Jamaica. Estados Unidos venció 2 a este equipo 1-0 en la final de la Copa de Oro en marzo mientras experimentaba con alineaciones bajo un 2 entrenador interino. Brasil apenas logró avanzar en la fase de grupos de estos Juegos Olímpicos.

Sin embargo, Brasil ha demostrado ser 2 un equipo peligroso, derrotando a Francia y España. El ataque de Estados Unidos ha sido ineficiente en las rondas eliminatorias.

¿Es 2 el momento del pago y el ansiado oro olímpico para una de las mejores jugadoras de fútbol femenino que el 2 mundo haya visto?
