you are betting on a team to win, and if it ends in a draw, your bet is refunded. This is a popular way to support a team with a little of the security of a bet, although at a higher price than the price that would be obtained in the market. It includes three regular ways that include a draw. What it means 'Draw' is that the entire bet is not lost.

A bettor on virtual sports wins more than R$ 2.8 million in a combined bet during the Championship Sunday of the NFL.

A bettor won more than a half million dollars by getting a combined bet during the Championship Sunday of the NFL. The bettor won more than R$ 2.8 million with only R$ 100 in balance on FanDuel.

correspondente às partidas de 6 conferência.

A combined bet requires that you get all the choices to win. In this case, the bettor had to get 6 teams to win and by how many points. This bet is extremely difficult to get.

The bettor got all 6 of his choices, including the winners and the exact score of the two games.

But what is this absurd amount? Only 55,555 people in the world would get a bet like this.

This is not the first case of a bettor winning a significant amount with a combined bet. In 2020, a bettor won more than R$ 5.6 million with only R$ 10 in a combined bet of European football.

After the news of the big victory, many fans of virtual sports were inspired to make their own combined bets, but remember that these bets are very difficult to get. But, for fun, don't forget to have fun and play responsibly!
