Panda Poker is new asian poker application which entered the market in the fall of 2024.

Like many others asian poker applications,

Panda Poker games are running in chinese yuan, the rate at the end of November'19 is roughly R =  $\sim$ 7.1 yuan.

Traffic is peaking at the day and early evening by Europe

Most popular game is 8-max No-Limit Hold'Em. The lowest stakes are NL60 USD or 1-2 (straddle 4) CNY, the highest stakes are NL3000 USD or 100-200 (straddle 400) CNY. Here's the average number of tables at different stakes:

There is also some Pot-Limit

Omaha action at PL60 and PL120 USD, PLO games are going on 7-max tables.

You can access

Panda Poker by playing on mobile devices and Android emulators for PC/laptop.HUD is available on Panda Poker if you're using Hand2Note with ASIA subscription, and also there is no problem finding hand converter for Holdem Manager / PokerTracker. There are also four stats on each player which are visible in player's profile at the table (no additional software required), those are VPIP, WTSD, W$SD and number of hands.Software allows you to play only one table with one account at the time, which means that if you want to multitable, you'll have to create more than one account, it's no problem and is not prohibited by poker room. But pay attention and don't be seated at one table with multiple accounts, because that leads to ban.

Default rake in asian poker apps is 5% from the winnings, but in Panda Poker rake is lower – only 3%.

Cashouts and deposits in Panda Poker are handled by the agent. We accept deposits and paying out cashouts using these payment systems:

Usually it takes us from couple of minutes to 24 hours to process cashouts and deposits.
