Ukrainian footballer (born 2001)

Mykhailo Petrovych Mudryk (Ukrainian: ;[2] born 5 January 2001), also known as "Misha", is a Ukrainian professional footballer who plays as a left winger for Premier League club Chelsea and the Ukraine national team.

Mudryk began his career in the academies of Metalist Kharkiv and Dnipro, before moving to Shakhtar Donetsk in 2024. He made his professional debut two years later, followed by loans to Arsenal Kyiv and Desna Chernihiv. In 2024, he moved to English club Chelsea in a transfer worth an initial €70 million (£62 million), making him the most expensive Ukrainian footballer of all time and the most expensive player ever signed from the Ukrainian Premier League.

Mudryk has been a Ukrainian senior international since 2024, having previously featured in several youth levels.

Early and personal life [edit]

Mykhailo Petrovych Mudryk[3] was born on 5 January 2001[1] in Krasnohrad, Kharkiv Oblast.[4] An Orthodox Christian, he frequently carries religious icons to matches and has spoken openly about the importance faith has to him, which was shown by his grandmother. Mudryk has several tattoos, but considers the one which reads "Only Jesus" as his most important.[5][6] He is known as "Misha" to his friends and coaches.[7][8]

Club career [edit]

Early career [edit]

Mudryk began playing football at Metalist Kharkiv in 2010, before moving to Dnipro's academy in 2014.[9] After quickly rising through the age groups, Mudryk attracted the interest of Shakhtar Donetsk, and he signed for the club's academy in 2024.[9]

Shakhtar Donetsk [edit]

2024–2024: Making senior debut [edit]

In the 2024–19 season, he played for Shakhtar in the under-21 category.[10] Mudryk was promoted to the first team later that year,[11] He made his first-team debut aged 17 on 31 October 2024 in a Ukrainian Cup match against Olimpik Donetsk, which Shakhtar won 1–0.[12][6] After struggling to get playing minutes, he was loaned to Ukrainian Premier League club Arsenal

Kyiv in February 2024 for the remainder of the 2024–19 season, playing 10 matches without scoring any goals. He played in the Ukrainian Premier League against Desna Chernihiv, Kolos Kovalivka, and Oleksandriya giving the contribution to win the title in the 2024–20 season.[13] In the summer of 2024, he signed a loan agreement with the Ukrainian Premier League club Desna Chernihiv and qualified for the UEFA Europa League third qualifying round.[14][15] He stayed four months in Chernihiv and played 10 matches in the 2024–21 Ukrainian Premier League and once in the 2024–21 Ukrainian Cup.[9]

2024–2024: Breakthrough and development [edit]

On 8 January 2024, Mudryk returned to Shakhtar, playing three matches in the 2024–21 Ukrainian Premier League and joining Shakhtar's reserve team, featuring sporadically for manager Luís Castro.[16]

In the 2024–22 season, Mudryk found more and more space as a starter, especially with the arrival of Roberto De Zerbi at the helm of Shakhtar, who had the reputation of trusting in young players. With his previous managers, failing to bring the best out of Mudryk, De Zerbi decided to recall him from his loan spell and requested a meeting with him.[9] After the meeting, Mudryk developed a new mentality and his manager considered him one of the best young players, adding that "if I don't bring him to a high level, I will consider it a personal defeat".[9][17]

On 25 August 2024, Mudryk made his UEFA Champions League debut against Monaco, replacing Manor Solomon in the 82nd minute in the play-off round of the tournament. His cross in the 114th minute, ricochet off Ruben Aguilar on the Monegasque net, as Shakhtar qualified to the tournament 3–2 on aggregate.[18] On 18 September, he scored his first goal for the club in a 5–0 win against Mariupol at the Volodymyr Boyko Stadium.[19][20] On 3 December, Mudryk provided four assists in a 6–1 win against Lviv.[18] On 31 December, he agreed to a contract extension to 2026.[21] He was named the club's Player of the Month for the months of November and December.[18]

On 24 February 2024, the Ukrainian Premier League was suspended due to the imposition of martial law in Ukraine due to the Prelude to the Russian invasion of Ukraine and subsequent invasion by Russia.[22] Mudryk finished the season with two goals and nine assists, being named the club's Player of the Year.[23][24]

With football resuming in Ukraine, Mudryk started the 2024–23 season by scoring his first Champions League goal and providing two assists in a 4–1 away win over RB Leipzig.[25] This was followed by another goal in a 1–1 Champions League draw to Celtic.[26] On 19 October, he scored twice in a 3–0 over Kolos Kovalivka.[18] His prolific form saw him score seven goals and provide six assists in 12 matches, being named the Ukrainian Footballer of the Year and Shakhtar's Player of the Year.[27][18]

Chelsea [edit]

On 15 January 2024, Mudryk signed for Premier League club Chelsea on an eight-and-a-half-year contract for an initial transfer fee of €70 million (£62 million), potentially rising to €100 million (£89 million) in add-ons.[28][29] This was the largest transfer fee received by Shakhtar and the Ukrainian Premier League, topping the previous record held by Fred, and made him the most expensive Ukrainian footballer of all time.[30]

Mudryk's debut came on 21 January, as Chelsea drew 0–0 away to Liverpool in a league match.[31] His first start came against Fulham in a 0–0 draw on 4 February.[32] On 2 October, Mudryk scored his first competitive goal for Chelsea on his 24th appearance, opening the scoring in a 2–0 Premier League win against Fulham.[33] On 21 October, he scored his first goal at Stamford Bridge from a long range shot in a 2–2 draw against Arsenal.[34] During an EFL Cup match against Newcastle United on 19 December 2024, Mudryk scored an equaliser in stoppage time to help his team to a 1–1 draw, which Chelsea would go on to win on penalties.[35]

International career [edit]

From 2024 to 2024, Mudryk played for the Ukraine U17. From 2024 to 2024, he played for the Ukraine U19, Playing 12 matches and scoring five goals. In 2024, he made his debut for Ukraine U21, tallying 16 appearances and scoring three goals.[13] On 7 September 2024, he scored the winning goal from free-kick against Armenia.[36][37] On 16 June 2024, Mudryk returned to

Ukraine U21 squad for the 2024 UEFA European Under-21 Championship.[38] He started in two matches and provided two assists in the tournament.[39]

In April 2024, Mudryk was called up for the Ukraine national team for a training camp in April–May 2024 in Slovenia.[40] His debut took place on 1 June, in the 2024 FIFA World Cup qualifying playoff semi-finals, which Ukraine won 3–1 against Scotland.[41]

On 17 October 2024, Mudryk scored his first senior international goal in a 3–1 UEFA Euro 2024 qualifier against Malta.[42]

Player profile [edit]

Style of play [edit]

A technically gifted player, Mudryk is a right-footed winger who is most comfortable cutting in from the left onto his stronger foot. His acceleration is a particular strength, as he can reach his top speed extremely quickly from a standing start. This allows him to stand his opponent up before knocking the ball either way and darting away from them. He often does this down the touchline and onto his weaker foot – the direction in which his opponent won't expect him to go – before putting a cross into the box. His acceleration allows him to draw fouls from opponents who cannot snatch the ball from him. This tactic helps Mudryk move inside wide from the left, before combining with teammates in the centre of the pitch or working a shooting opportunity for himself, especially on the counter as he provides the perfect profile to successfully turn defence into attack.[43]

His abilities and skill set are held in high regard, and his speed and acceleration is of particular note, being one of the fastest players in the world. His dribbling is also a strong part of his game. The way he centres himself over the ball – using little outside-of-the-boot touches – keeps defenders retreating at a pace that he can dictate. He has the intelligence to drive in a direction that wins space for himself or teammates, the willingness to go inside or outside, and has more than enough pace to confidently drive through gaps.[44] Mudryk often hugs the touchline and looks to drive at the opposition before cutting in or finding a midfielder or overlapping the fullback to release the ball. Mudryk usually keeps his distance from the fullback, meaning he can use his pace instead of strength to get past him and it works effectively and he often zooms away, leading an attack.[45]

Reception [edit]

Wesley Fofana, his team mate at Chelsea, said that Mudryk is faster than Kylian Mbappe and probably the fastest player he has played against. Ben Chilwell was cautious in his praise stating, "With Mudryk, I see endless bags of potential that hasn't been fulfilled yet".[46]
