Frequently Asked Questions

What are live casino games?

A live

casino game is a game that is hosted by a real dealer and streamed live over the internet. If you can play the game with a real dealer at a brick-and-mortar casino, there is probably a live dealer version of it. Some examples of live dealer games include roulette, blackjack, and poker.

These games have existed since the mid-2000s but were fairly niche due to technological restraints. This has become less of an issue as device and internet speeds have improved, which is why this genre of games has recently become so popular.

How do live casinos work?

If you're interested in online live casino games, here's how they work. Live dealer games can be broadcast to players online directly from a casino, or from a studio.

Some live casino game dealers operate in their own dedicated studio space, while others share their space with other dealers. Players interact with live dealer games using various internet-based tools, such as live chat and online betting systems.

How to play live casino games?

If you like to play online casino games and you're interested in trying out live casino games, they are run quite differently. In order to play live casino games, you'll first need to register at the site and make a deposit as you would with any other online casino.?

You

then decide which game you'd like to join, be it live roulette, live blackjack, or live poker. Once you've joined the game, you can interact with the dealer and the game using the online interface. You can use it to place bets and chat with other players, and perform any actions you'd need to when playing a live dealer game (these actions will differ from game to game, depending on what you are playing).?

What's the difference between an online casino and live dealer casino?

The main difference between an online casino and live dealer casino is the types of games they offer. An online casino tends to be focused on offering a primarily Random Number Generator (RNG) or software-based games. Everything depends on this computer-based function. Visuals are usually illustrations and animations that depict the action of the table and card games
