Cash game

Cash games, also sometimes referred to as ring games or live action games, are poker games played with "real" chips and money at stake, often with no predetermined end time, with players able to enter and leave as they see fit. In contrast, a poker tournament is played with tournament chips worth nothing outside the tournament, with a definite end condition (usually, only one player left), and a specific roster of competitors.

Rules [edit]

Players may freely buy into or cash out of a cash game between hands.[1] However, it is normally prohibited for a player to remove a portion of his or her chips from the table. This is known as "going south".[2] For example, if a player buys in for R$100, then wins R$100 (for a total stack of R$200), the player may not remove the original R$100 buy-in while remaining seated. He would have to forfeit his seat, possibly wait to rejoin the game, and buy in again for R$100; however, many cardrooms prohibit the practice of buying in again unless a certain time period has elapsed before the player rejoins. Similarly, cash games are played for table stakes. If a player attempts to put additional money onto the table (from his/her wallet) in the middle of a hand, he may not do so until the conclusion of said hand.

In "no limit" poker cash games, some cardrooms have a maximum buy-in for cash games. In limit poker games, there is seldom a maximum buy-in because betting limits already limit the amount a player can wager on each hand.

In a casino, a rake is usually taken from a pot if a flop is shown and the pot reaches certain values.[3] Some games take a time rake instead of a pot rake. In these games players pay a seat charge every half-hour.

Ring games [edit]

While the terms "ring game" and "cash game" are often considered synonymous in common usage, opinion differs on the true definition of "ring game". For example, in the glossary of Doyle Brunson's Super System 2, a ring game is defined as "A game with a player in every seat, that is, a full game—as opposed to a shorthanded game".[4] As such, the term "cash game" may be considered a more precise depiction of the kind of game commonly found in most casinos or home venues; that is, a non-tournament game played for actual money (or chips representing actual money), without regard for the number of players seated at the table at any given time.

Comparison with tournament games [edit]

Tournaments and cash games have different basic strategies. One difference between tournaments and cash games is that the blind/ante structure of tournaments increases periodically over the course of the tournament, whereas the blind/ante structure of cash games remains constant. Another difference between the tournaments and cash games is that a tournament sticks with a predetermined style of poker, and cash game players, depending on house rules, may have the option of playing other types of card games. Some online cash games offer a variety of choices limited only by the game software.

Other differences between cash games and tournament poker are that, in cash games sometimes straddles and chops are allowed. A live straddle is a dark bet of two big blinds by the player first to act, who is then entitled to bet again if the bet is not raised. A chop is an agreement between the players in the blinds to retract their blind bets if no one else has bet. A chop prevents the casino from taking a rake from the pot. Also, cash games sometimes allow players to reduce the element of luck (often called "variance", especially by professional players) by splitting large all-in pots. Since online platforms can instantly calculate each player's pot equity at the time they go all-in, some online cash games allow such pots to be split based on this equity. Players who opt for such an arrangement will receive a share of the pot based on his or her odds of winning (from the time all players still in the pot exposed their cards) once all of the cards have been dealt. An alternative method of reducing variance, used both online and in live games, is to run the board multiple times to ensure that the person with the best odds of winning gets the largest share of the pot more often.

Examples [edit]

An example of a cash game is broadcast on the United States subscription-based streaming service PokerGO as High Stakes Poker. The Bellagio casino's "Big Game" is a high-stakes permanent cash game, featuring a wide variety of rotating poker games with and without limits.[5]

Israeli Military Confirma Muerte de Rehenes Secuestrados en Gaza

El ejército israelí anunció el lunes que cuatro rehenes secuestrados durante los ataques dirigidos por Hamas del 7 de octubre habían muerto hace varios meses en Gaza, una revelación que probablemente aumentará la presión sobre el gobierno de Benjamín Netanyahu para avanzar en un acuerdo de alto el fuego.

El almirante Rear Adm. Daniel Hagari, portavoz del ejército israelí, declaró en una conferencia de prensa el lunes que los cuatro rehenes se creía que habían sido asesinados juntos "hace varios meses" cerca de Khan Younis, en el sur de Gaza, mientras las fuerzas israelíes operaban en el área. El ejército israelí los identificó como Haim Perry, Yoram Metzger, Amiram Cooper y Nadav Poplewell.

El almirante Hagari dijo que la decisión de anunciar las muertes de los rehenes el lunes se basó en "inteligencia adicional, que se ha verificado recientemente, lo que ha hecho posible determinar hoy que los cuatro ya no están vivos", agregando que sabía "que surgirían preguntas difíciles" sobre las circunstancias de sus muertes. Las familias de los cuatro han sido notificadas de que los cuerpos de los cuatro están siendo retenidos por Hamas, y las circunstancias de sus muertes aún están bajo examen, dijo el ejército israelí.

El Foro de las Familias de Rehenes, un grupo de apoyo, emitió un comunicado exigiendo que el gobierno israelí negocie de inmediato un acuerdo para que los rehenes restantes sean liberados. Dijo que los cuatro que fueron declarados muertos el lunes estaban vivos cuando fueron secuestrados de Kibbutz Nirim y Kibbutz Nir Oz, y que hubo "señales de vida" en el período intermedio.

"Su asesinato en cautiverio es una desgracia y una triste reflexión sobre la importancia de retrasar los acuerdos anteriores", dijo el grupo.

Presión sobre Netanyahu para terminar el conflicto en Gaza

La presión sobre Netanyahu para poner fin a los combates en Gaza ha aumentado desde la semana pasada, cuando el presidente Biden públicamente respaldó lo que dijo que era una propuesta de alto el fuego de tres fases presentada por Israel. Pero los aliados de extrema derecha de Netanyahu han amenazado con derrumbar su gobierno si Israel hace algún acuerdo que termine la guerra sin eliminar a Hamas.

El lunes, Netanyahu le dijo a los legisladores en una reunión a puerta cerrada que Biden no había presentado "la imagen completa" cuando describió la propuesta de alto el fuego, según una persona que asistió a la reunión y solicitó el anonimato para discutir las deliberaciones privadas. Pero el líder israelí expresó apertura a una tregua de 42 días en los combates, la persona dijo, abrazando al menos parte de la primera fase del plan de alto el fuego.

Un portavoz del ala militar de Hamas, Abu Ubaida, dijo el 1 de marzo que tres de los hombres ahora declarados muertos - Cooper, Metzger y Perry - eran parte de siete rehenes que habían sido asesinados por ataques aéreos israelíes en Gaza.
