Here's a text using those words: As the victorious officer approached the parish, a little uncertainty filled his mind. He had never before been chosen for such an important task. The government had placed great trust in him, and he did not want to let them down. His carriage, driven by a mechanical driver, pulled up in front of the parish just as the bells began to ring, signaling the beginning of the evening service. The officer, accompanied by a few members of the garrison, entered the parish with a sense of unease. He had always been a religious man, but in recent days, he had begun to question his faith. He glanced around the room, taking in the faces of the parishioners. At the altar, he saw an old priest, his face obscured by a thick beard, prayerfully holding a bible. The officer approached the priest, who greeted him warmly. "Good evening, my son," he said, his voice trembling slightly. "Welcome to our humble parish. I am Father Daugherty, the parish priest. What brings you here this evening?" The officer hesitated for a moment. "Father, I want to worship," he said finally. "I want to confess my sins and receive absolution." Father Daugherty nodded solemnly. "Of course, my son. I will take you to the confessional. But first, I must offer you a plate of food. You must be hungry after your long journey." The officer nodded and accepted the plate. As he ate, he couldn't help but feel that something was off. The food tasted strange, and he could swear that he saw a streak of red in the stew. Suddenly, a feeling of dread overcame him. As he approached the confessional, a strange vision appeared before his eyes. He saw a group of people dressed in strange clothing, shouting and waving their fists. And then, without warning, a figure emerged from the crowd and struck him down. The officer fell to the ground, unconscious. When he awoke, he was lying in a dark, cold room. His hands and feet were bound and he could see nothing but shadows dancing in the darkness. He tried to cry out, but his voice was hoarse. He was alone, and he had no idea where he was or how he had gotten there. And then, out of the darkness, a figure emerged. A woman, dressed in a long black robe. She moved towards him, her eyes fixed intently on his face. And then, she spoke. "You have been chosen," she said. "You are the one who will lead us into the new age. But first, you must suffer." The officer trembled as the woman approached him, her hands outstretched. And then, all went black.
